

Tear Me Down

I was born on the other side of a town ripped in two I made it over the great divide
Now I'm coming for you Enemies and adversaries
they try and tear me down
You want me, baby, I dare you
Try and tear me down
I rose from off of the doctor's slab like Lazarus from the pit Now everyone wants to take a stab and decorate me with blood graffiti and spit
Enemies and adversaries
they try and tear me down
You want me, baby, I dare you
Try and tear me down

*On August 13, 1961, a wall was erected down the middle of the city of Berlin.
The world was divided by a cold war and the Berlin wall was the most hated symbol of that divide Reviled. Graffited. Spit upon.
We thought the wall would stand forever,
and now that it's gone,
we don't know who we are anymore.
Ladies and Gentleman, Hedwig is like that wall, standing before you in the divide between East and West, Slavery and Freedom,
Man and Woman,
Top and Bottom.
And you can try and tear her down,
but before you do,
remember one thing.*

Listen
There ain't much of a difference between a bridge and a wall Without me right in the middle, babe you would be nothing at all
Enemies and adversaries
You want me, baby, I dare you
try and tear me down.
